

Assistant / Associate Professor in Entrepreneurship

ESCP Europe invites to apply for a full-time Faculty Position in Entrepreneurship at its Paris campus.

Responsibilities:

Our future colleague will represent the fields of Entrepreneurship, Intrapreneurship and Innovation in teaching and research and strengthen the school's European Entrepreneurship team: Jacqueline Fendt, Sylvain Bureau, Martin Kupp, René Mauer, Régis Coeurderoy, Eric Pesnel, Miguel Palacios, Davide Sola and an enthusiastic team of intrapreneurs, doctoral students, and affiliated practitioners and academics. The following specializations are of particular interest: Digital business and E-learning. The position reflects an equal balance between teaching, curriculum development, research, value chain development and community development, and it requires a passion for all of these elements and a capacity to interconnect them.

The appointment will be ranked at the assistant or associate professor level. In any case, the salary is competitive. ESCP Europe provides housing search assistance. Employees also benefit from Social security benefits, complementary health insurance, and a contributory pension scheme.

Requirements:

- A Ph.D. (or equivalent) in entrepreneurship or in a related field, and post-doc experience as an assistant/associate professor
- Evidence of (or clear potential to achieve) excellence in research (such as publications in leading journals, and/or highly innovative, experimental research)
- Experience and interest in teaching a diverse student population (e.g. Master, executives, small business entrepreneurs, family businesses, the general public)
- A passion for entrepreneurship-in-action, action learning and action research
- A curiosity for experimenting and working in open learning communities
- A passion for entrepreneurs and a genuine interest in working with diverse stakeholders along the entrepreneurial value chain toward practical and theoretical value creation and thought leadership.
- The ability to teach in English is essential. Proficiency in French is very much appreciated, and expected within reasonable time.

About ESCP Europe:

Established in 1819, ESCP Europe is the oldest business school in the world. Its mission is to develop the next generation of transnational business leaders, preparing them to embrace the opportunities offered by cultural diversity. With its six urban campuses in Berlin, London, Madrid, Paris, Turin and Warsaw, ESCP Europe's true European Identity enables the provision of a unique style of cross-cultural business education and a Global Perspective on international management issues. Through a combination of innovative pedagogy, cross-campus programs and a research-active faculty, ESCP Europe is an essential contributor to the development of the transnational management culture so essential in today's global business environment.

About the Chair of Entrepreneurship (ChairEEEE):

Launched in 2007 powered by EY and ESCP Europe Foundation, the Chair of Entrepreneurship (ChairEEEE) educates and accompanies women and men who want to develop innovative projects in contexts of uncertainty and limited resources, whether they do so as entrepreneurs, intrapreneurs, students, executives, ... The ChairEEEE develops an innovative and experiential pedagogy, offers unique incubation (Blue Factory) and acceleration (Parisfactory), as well as a strong connection with local ecotopes. Every year, we train over 1000 students and managers in entrepreneurship, we mentor around 250 projects, and we manage a growing community of thousands across the Globe through our newsletter (more than 22 000 subscribers) as well as multiple events (for instance Made In ESCP Europe and the EntrepreneurSHIP Festival). In addition, we are intensively engaged in research activity. ChairEEEE is a team of more than 20 dedicated people (teachers, researchers, project managers...), based on the school's various campuses and combining rich and diverse expertise (corporate entrepreneurship, family business, entrepreneurial finance, social entrepreneurship, business modeling, digital innovation, sharing economy, design, art...).
