

Call for PhD Applications in the field of Entrepreneurship

We call for applications for our doctoral program at Aalto University School of Business in the field of Entrepreneurship by January 10, 2019 by 12:00 o'clock (Finnish time, GMT +2) at the latest. Aalto University School of Business is the leading business school in Finland and one of the top schools in Europe, established in 1911. It is strongly dedicated to research.

Research at our Entrepreneurship Unit at Aalto University School of Business

Research at our entrepreneurship unit is pronouncedly multi-disciplinary, applying theories and methods from economics, geography, psychology and sociology to diverse entrepreneurial phenomena.

We can confidently state that our research meets the highest quality standards. Our team has not only published in top outlets in the field such as Academy of Management Journal, Academy of Management Review, Academy of Management Perspectives, Journal of Business Venturing, Entrepreneurship Theory and Practice and adjacent disciplines (Journal of Economic Geography, Regional Studies), but we have also won significant paper awards (Academy of Management, ISBE) and prestigious research funding (Academy of Finland, Tekes).

What we offer

We offer an English-language four-year doctoral program in Business for those seeking academic careers. Within that program, we provide doctoral courses and supervision in an attractive international work environment, together with a collegial atmosphere of our doctoral students, post docs, and faculty members with the aim to make your stay at the School of Business rewarding and to provide you with an excellent foundation for your future career in academia.

Full time doctoral students will receive an after tax salary of approximately 25,000 € (depending on other income and tax deductions) in years 1 and 2. From year 3 onwards the doctoral students are expected to find their own funding, either as a paid researcher or from foundations. The School may also offer some fully paid doctoral researcher positions for best applicants.

The School of Business is located in Helsinki. Helsinki has been praised as one of the world's most livable cities, e.g., by Monocle Magazine and in the Economist Intelligence Unit livability rankings. As for Finland, the country is consistently ranked highly in quality-of-life studies. It was the best country in the world according to a Newsweek 2010 study.
