

GRENOBLE
ECOLE DE
MANAGEMENT

BUSINESS LAB FOR SOCIETY

Associate/Full Professorship in Entrepreneurship and Innovation at Grenoble Ecole de Management

Grenoble Ecole de Management is reinforcing its faculty at Grenoble and Paris Campuses with significant investment in international recruits with a high-quality track record for research and/or strong pipeline, a passion for teaching and a desire to make a difference. We are the youngest of the top business schools in France, with a triple accreditation (AACSB, EQUIS & AMBA), and in a short time have established an international reputation for high-quality research output and innovative pedagogy.

GEM is seeking applications for a full-time position of associate or full professor in Entrepreneurship and Innovation (starting date: 1st September 2020, or possibly earlier under certain conditions). The candidate must have a strong record of publications in top academic journals and demonstrate leadership competence while being embedded in a wider international academic community.

We seek a candidate who would integrate in the research team "Entrepreneurship and Innovation" where members' current research topics range from entrepreneurial orientation, hybrid entrepreneurship, entrepreneurial exit, competition dynamics, interpersonal networks and innovation, corporate R&D, knowledge diffusion, innovation adoption, to interorganizational alliances in national and global contexts. We welcome applicants with research interests in those areas but equally those bringing new entrepreneurial and innovation topics to the research team

The position is within the department "Management, Technology and Strategy". The candidate should demonstrate excellent teaching skills in the field of Entrepreneurship and Innovation at undergraduate, graduate, MBA, and/or PhD levels. Fluency in French is not mandatory but appreciated.

We offer an international, collegial and vibrant environment, encouraging and supporting creativity, innovativeness and excellence. Grenoble Ecole de Management offers financial support and help for relocation and assistance for integration in Grenoble and life in France.

Deadline for full applications is 20th December 2019.

Full applications including a short cover letter, a CV (including a list of publications and details about papers under review or in progress) and teaching evaluations should be uploaded on <https://gemrecrutement.azurewebsites.net/> (please select "Management Technology Strategy" as department and specify "Entrepreneurship & Innovation" in the comment section). Informal inquiries regarding the position can be made to Bart Chollet (barthelemy.chollet@grenoble-em.com) and Vivien Procher (vivien.procher@grenoble-em.com).
