

Call for Papers

25th Annual Interdisciplinary Conference on Entrepreneurship,
Innovation and SMEs
September 22nd – 23rd, 2022, TU Dresden (Germany)

Annual Conference 2022

The 25th Annual Interdisciplinary Conference on Entrepreneurship, Innovation and SMEs (G-Forum) will be held in Dresden from September 22nd to 23rd, 2022. The leading partner of the FGF e.V. is the TU Dresden. The conference president is Prof. Dr. Michael Schefczyk, Chair for Entrepreneurship and Innovation at TU-Dresden.

COVID-19-pandemic

The conference will be held as a face-to-face event and will take place under the event guidelines valid at that time to combat the COVID-19 pandemic.

Keynotes

The conference program will be enriched by renowned keynote speakers. We will provide information on this at a later date.

Theme

The overarching theme of the G-Forum 2022 in Dresden is:

"Change in Entrepreneurship - Opportunities and Risks / Structures and Strategies"

Dynamic changes in the global economy challenge entrepreneurship continuously. Most recently, COVID-19 and the subsequent events of 2020 and 2021 confronted companies of all sizes with essential activities to contain the virus and its consequences. Typically, companies are surrounded by numerous uncertainties, but this crisis in particular caught everyone unprepared. This has not only economic consequences, but also affects the psychological resilience of all actors, as well as a country's social developments and social processes.

However, a consequential radical or moderate change requires appropriate behaviours and countermeasures in entrepreneurship practice and science. Thereby, enterprises have to react flexibly to economic changes, in order to keep their market position and to remain competitive also in the long-term. Although these reactions can lead to a dramatic transformation of entire sectors and industries, unique opportunities arise to develop and establish new corporate processes and business models. Therefore, the G-Forum 2022 addresses related questions that most currently arise for science and practice, such as: Which structures support or impede a response to change? What strategies and management methods should be applied to cope with such deep economic as well as political cuts? On the one hand, this raises the question of which risks need to be countered.

On the other hand, it has to be explored which opportunities arise for entrepreneurship through the confrontation with change and moreover, which solution approaches might be suitable for coping with such fundamental external influences.

Science and practice

To enhance the exchange between science and practice, submissions "from both worlds" are expressly desired. Topic-specific sessions are offered which are either based on submissions from science or practice. There will be two independent review processes to meet the different requirements of submissions from both realms.

Topics

In addition to submissions addressing the guiding theme of the conference, the conference organizers expressly welcome any submission that corresponds to the three main thematic fields of the FGF e.V. These are the topics:

- Entrepreneurship
- Innovation
- SMEs.

In this way, the G-Forum will fulfill its role as a central platform for the scientific community to exchange views on the current state of scientific discussion.

Languages

The conference languages are German and English.

Submission types

It is possible to submit full papers (max. 30 pages excluding bibliography, graphics, tables) to the G-Forum. Authors of full paper submissions will receive a developmental review from members of the G-Forum Review Board and can qualify for a 20-minute presentation plus 10-minute discussion. However, proposals for presentations can also be submitted as an abstract. An abstract should not exceed 1,000 words. Short abstracts will qualify for shorter presentations (10 minutes presentations) or poster presentations.

Please submit your full papers or abstracts as a pdf document in an anonymized form (without author information) until May 10, 2022 via our G-Forum conference tool.

Guidelines for submission (full paper and abstracts)

Research-and practice-oriented papers can be submitted. Please register as a user of the G-Forum conference tool. Please do not forget to upload your anonymized submission as a PDF document. Submissions are possible in German or English. Submissions of scientific contributions should ideally be structured as follows:

- Problem definition (research gap / objective)
- Theoretical foundation
- Methodology / empirical research context
- Results
- Implications for entrepreneurship research and practice

Submissions of practical contributions should include a clear starting point, objectives, results and implications for practice.

Review process

The selection of full papers and abstracts to be presented at the conference will be based on a double-blind review process. Only full paper submissions will receive a developmental review. The G-Forum review board is responsible for the review process. We will inform the authors on the acceptance of their submissions in mid-July 2022.

Awards

Various subject areas of the FGF will be recognized with awards. These awards will be announced 2022 prior to the conference. Detailed information (tender texts) will be available on the FGF website. We also recommend following the news in our FGF Newsletter (only in German).

Doctoral Colloquium

On September 21st, 2022, we invite interested doctoral students in the fields of entrepreneurship, innovation and medium-sized companies to a doctoral colloquium. Experienced researchers give an introduction to the following questions and themes:

- How to successfully master a PhD
- How to publish my doctoral research in reputable academic journals
- An introduction to the FGF structured doctoral program class of 2023

Moreover, selected doctoral students will have the opportunity to present their ongoing research projects in a developmental workshop atmosphere and to discuss them with experienced scholars. A proposal should contain a two- to three-page description with the following information:

- Topic
- Research question(s)
- Research design
- Hypothesis (hypotheses) and
- (If available) first results and information about questions for the colloquium.

Please register by e-mail to Ulrich Knaup (knaup@fgf-ev.de) by July 30th, 2022 using the keyword "Doctoral Colloquium 2022". Participation in the doctoral colloquium is linked to registration for the G-Forum.
