Family Business and Mittelstand Research Award 2023

The EQUA-Stiftung and the FGF supports researchers by donating the prize money of 1.000 Euro for the "Family Business and Mittelstand Research Award 2023", which will be awarded during the 26th Annual Interdisciplinary Conference on Entrepreneurship and Innovation, September 27th to 29th, 2023 in Darmstadt (Germany).

Participants are all authors who submit a full paper proposal (30 pages + literature notes) until May 10th 2023 for the G-Forum 2023.

The award-winners will be determined in a two-step selection process. In the first stage, the results of the double-blind review process will be considered.

Selection criteria for scientific contribution proposals are:

- Use / relevance for family business-research and -practice
- Conceptual strength
- Methodology
- Originality / novelty
- Intelligibility

In the second stage, the authors (individual authors or team) of the three best works of this review process are nominated for the "Family Business and Mittelstand Research Award 2023". Out of these nominated works the award-winner will be selected by a five-member jury (scientists from the FGF-working group "Family Business" and representatives of the founder).

Submission guidelines:

The submission of the scientific contribution should ideally be divided as follows:

- Problem (research gap / objectives)
- Theoretical foundation
- Methodology / empirical research context
- Results
- Implications for family business research and practice

Your full paper should be submitted as a single PDF-document until May 10th 2023 at our conference homepage.

Please send your full paper submission without the author's name (blind manuscript) and a manuscript with the author's name on the title page. Entries can be submitted in German or English. We will inform the authors in end-July 2023 about the acceptance of their proposals.

Presentation of the nominated works and appreciation of the winners

Nominated authors (individual authors or team) are invited for presentation at the G-Forum 2023 (presentation by at least one author is required). The announcement of the winner and the prize presentation take place at the dinner reception of the G-Forum 2023 in Darmstadt (Germany) on September 28th 2023.
